I grew up in Catlettsburg, Ky. My mother, Loretta Stuart, and my only sibling, Ruth Ellen Chaney, still live in Boyd County, Kentucky. The Catlettsburg First United Methodist Church was my home church. I was president of the local church youth group, the sub-district youth, district youth and the Kentucky Conference Youth Council. I was called to preach at the age of 14.

I was Ordained a Deacon in 1982 and Elder in 1985 in the Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church.

I have served 26 years as a Senior Pastor (34 years total service as an Ordained Clergy)

Conference Superintendent of the Red Bird Conference. (Served 6 years as of 2016)

District Superintendent of the South East KY District of the Kentucky Conference and served a year as the Dean of the Cabinet. (Served 8 years as of 2016)

I also served five additional years as a Youth Minister and Assistant Pastor.

I have served on boards, committees and teams in the life of the local church, district, Annual Conference, Jurisdiction and General church level since I was 14 years old.

I presently serve on many boards, committees and teams in the two conferences in which I serve: All conference committees of the Red Bird Conference; KY Conference Trustees and Committee on Disaster Relief

I also serve on:

Board of Directors of General Board of Global Ministries

GBGM Finance Committee and the Budget Review Committee

Board of Directors of UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) (UMCOR Emergency Fund Release Committee)

Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy

Interjurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy (Secretary)

UMW International Program and Advisory Committee
